Discovery Metals' former business was through its wholly owned operating company, Abode Mortgage Corporation ("AMC"), an underwriting entity focused primarily on the origination and servicing of mortgages from various distribution channels. AMC permanently closed its mortgage operation on March 4, 2010. There were no operations from that date and until the completion of the change of business transaction (the "Transaction") on August 17, 2017. Over the next several months the Company signed option agreements on six other properties in Coahuila, Mexico.

On July 17 and July 19, 2017, the Company completed the first and second tranches respectively, of a non-brokered private placement (the "Offering"). Aggregate gross proceeds from both tranches of the Offering were $15,618,500. The proceeds of the Offering were held in escrow, pending the Company receiving all applicable regulatory approvals and completing the Transaction. Subsequently, on August 17, 2017, the Company completed the Transaction and began trading on the Exchange as a junior exploration company.

Q3 2018 HIGHLIGHTS

During the three months ended September 30, 2018, the Company issued several news releases announcing the results of sampling at the Puerto Rico, Minerva and Monclova projects.

Puerto Rico project

During the quarter, the Company announced the complete results from the sampling program at the San Jose mine at the Puerto Rico project. Highlights include:

- First batch of 71 underground channel samples, all from Chuyon level;
- The Chuyon level, comprised of approximately 140m of underground workings, returned the highest average ZnEq manto grade of any other historic level sampled to date at Puerto Rico, at 28.2% ZnEq.
- Cu values were consistent and high across the level, indicating potential proximity to an intrusive source. The highest Cu sample was 1.4m of 5.1% Cu and 43 g/t Ag. High Cu values were primarily found in chimneys and faults and averaged of 0.8% Cu, 50g/t Ag, 4.0% Zn, and 3.5% Pb (9.2% ZnEq).
- The samples returned the two significant high-grade Pb and Zn channels:
 - o 0.7m of 440 g/t Ag, 17.2% Zn, 49.5% Pb, 0.3% Cu (58.0% ZnEq); and
 - o 0.5m of 97 g/t Ag, 45.6% Zn, 0.6% Pb, 0.1% Cu (47.8% ZnEq).

 - o 2.3m of 199 g/t Ag, 0.3% Cu, 11.6% Pb, 6.8% Zn (18.5% ZnEq); and
 - o 1.7m of 27 Ag, 0.4% Pb, 24.0% Zn (24.9% ZnEq).
- Three strongly mineralized mantos were identified and returned average grades of 18.1%, 15.2% and 28.2% ZnEq (32 samples).
- Two strongly mineralized chimneys were identified and returned average grades of 14.3% and 17.8% ZnEq (40 samples).

Refer to the Press Releases dated July 18, 2018 and August 23, 2018 available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on the Company's website at www.dsvmetals.com.

 - o Chimney NW1 average – 279 g/t Ag, 27% Pb, 26.5% Zn (53.1% ZnEq), over 0.8m;
 - o Chimney NE10 average – 484 g/t Ag, 22.7% Pb, 22.1% Zn (48.8% ZnEq) over 0.6m; and

2018 OUTLOOK

Discovery Metals remains in the early stages of developing exploration programs and working on the seven properties for which it signed option agreements.

Management believes rock channel samples taken at Puerto Rico, Minerva and Monclova provide encouraging results. The widths and grades in this sampling indicate that economically robust polymetallic grades potentially occur on the projects, and that a substantial program of geology, geophysics, geochemistry, and drilling is merited. A detailed compilation program, based on historic production and exploration data, is being completed. The Company began surface exploration work in Q1 2018, which included extensive high-quality remote sensing to detect alteration patterns, geologic mapping, extensive rock-chip geochemistry. The Company plans to begin drilling, subject to receiving permits, and carrying out an airborne geophysics survey on the properties.

While the Company's main focus in fiscal 2018 will be on Puerto Rico, Minerva and Monclova, other activities will include testing its other four properties with surface exploration work.

There are no present plans for any material capital expenditures in the next twelve months. As such, the Company is sufficiently capitalized to support the budget forecast.

(Expressed in Canadian dollars, except where otherwise noted)

The Company had net cash used in investing activities of $234,055 for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to net cash used in investing activities of $667,359 for the nine months ended August 31, 2017. Investing activities for the prior period includes cash paid to the Vendors for the original acquisition of the mineral properties compared to current period which includes the acquisition of claims for Minerva, La Kika and Puerto Rico and additions to property, plant and equipment.

During the nine months ended August 31, 2017, the Company completed a non-brokered private placement (the "Offering") with combined gross proceeds from both tranches of the Offering totalling $15,618,500, through the issuance of 31,237,000 subscription receipts. As part of the closing of the Transaction, a loan receivable to the Vendors in the amount of $204,105 was cancelled and used as a reduction in the total amounts payable to the Vendors under the property option agreements for a net cash outflow of $nil for the period for this item.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT AND LIQUIDITY

The Company defines capital as its shareholder's equity (comprised of issued share capital, contributed surplus and deficit). The Company's objectives when managing capital are to support the Company's main activities of identifying, defining and developing mineral deposits, thus creating shareholder value, as well ensuring that the Company will be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due.

The Company manages its capital structure to maximize its financial flexibility to enable the Company to respond to changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets and business opportunities. The Company does not presently utilize any quantitative measures to monitor its capital, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain the future development of the business. Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes that this approach, given the relative size of the Company, is reasonable. As at September 30, 2018, the Company does not have any long-term debt outstanding and is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements or debt covenants. There was no change to the Company's approach to capital management during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018.

As at September 30, 2018, the Company had working capital of $6,581,079 (December 31, 2017 – $12,043,101), shareholders' equity of $8,086,831 (December 31, 2017 – $13,255,011) and an accumulated deficit of $27,244,732 (December 31, 2017 – $21,598,689). The Company is sufficiently capitalized to complete planned initial exploration programs on its properties for the current fiscal year. However, the Company will likely require additional financing to accomplish its long-term strategic objectives. Future funding may be obtained by means of issuing share capital, debt financing or a combination of both and will be assessed by Management at that time.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND FINANCIAL RISK FACTORS

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable and deposits, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Accounts receivable and deposits are classified as receivables and are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are classified as other financial liabilities and are measured at amortized cost. These financial instruments approximate their fair value due to their short-term nature.

The fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instrument. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and, therefore, cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Financial instruments are classified into one of three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the degree to which the inputs used in the fair value measurement are observable.

- Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THE THREE AND NINE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2018 AND AUGUST 31, 2017
(Expressed in Canadian dollars, except where otherwise noted)

As at September 30, 2018 the Company had no financial instruments classified as Level 2 or 3.

Financial Risk Factors

The Company's has exposure to certain risks resulting from its use of financial instruments. For a detailed discussion of risks, refer to the Company's MD&A for the four months ended December 31, 2017 and the year ended August 31, 2017 dated April 24, 2018, which is incorporated by reference herein and available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on the Company's website at www.dsvmetals.com.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. As at September 30, 2018, the Company had a cash balance of $5,928,552 (December 31, 2017 - $12,234,811) to settle current liabilities of $254,985 (December 31, 2017 - $442,391). The Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of less than 30 days and are subject to normal trade terms.

As at September 30, 2018, the Company has no sources of revenue to fund its operating expenditures. During the year-ended August 31, 2017, the Company closed a non-brokered private placement of 31 million common shares at a price of $0.50 per share for gross proceeds of $15,618,500. Management believes these financings will fund the Company's initial exploration work on the properties in Coahuila, Mexico as well as the existing administrative needs for the near term. However, the Company will require additional financing to accomplish the Company's long term strategic objectives. Future funding may be obtained by means of issuing share capital, or debt financing. If the Company is unable to continue to finance itself through these means as a result of adverse market conditions or other, it is possible that the Company will be unable to continue as a going concern. Consequently, the Company is currently exposed to a moderate level of liquidity risk.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will fail to fulfill an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The Company's cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and prepaids and deposits are exposed to credit risk. The Company has assessed the credit risk on its cash and cash equivalents as low as its funds are held in highly rated Canadian financial institutions. Management deems the credit risk associated with sales tax receivable and prepaids and deposits to be at an acceptable level.

The Company's maximum exposure to credit risk related to certain financial instruments as identified below, approximates the carrying value of these assets on the Company's consolidated statements of financial position.

	September 30, 2018	December 31, 2017
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 5,928,552	$ 12,234,811

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and equity prices. Management has determined market risk to be at an acceptable level.

Interest rate risk

The Company has significant cash balances and no interest-bearing debt. The Company’s current policy is to invest excess cash in high-yield savings accounts. The Company regularly monitors its cash management policy. Management has determined interest rate risk to be low.

Foreign currency risk

The Company’s functional currency is the Canadian dollar. At September 30, 2018, cash balances were held primarily in Canadian dollars. Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of the Company’s financial instruments denominated in foreign currencies will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Changes in the exchange rate between foreign currencies and the Canadian Dollar could have a significant impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations, and cash flows. The Company does not use derivative instruments to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk.

The Company is mainly exposed to foreign currency risk on financial instruments (consisting of trade payables) denominated in USD and Mexican Pesos (“MXP”). As at September 30, 2018, the Company had the following foreign currency denominated trade payables:

	September 30, 2018	December 31, 2017
United States dollar	$ 38,508	$ 33,970
Mexican Peso	110,892	20,584
	$ 149,400	$ 54,554

It is estimated that a 10% fluctuation in the United States Dollar and Mexican Pesos against the Canadian dollar would affect net loss at September 30, 2018 by approximately $14,940 (December 31, 2017: $8,231). As at September 30, 2018, Management has determined the Company’s exposure to foreign currency risk to be at an acceptable level.

Price risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity prices and prices of equity securities. Commodity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on net income or loss and economic value due to commodity price movements and volatilities. Equity security price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on the Company’s net income or loss due to movements in individual prices of equity securities or price movements in the stock market generally. The Company closely monitors commodity prices, particularly as they relate to base metals, and movement in the price of individual equity securities movements and the stock market generally, to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company.

As at September 30, 2018, Management has determined the Company’s exposure to price risk to be at an acceptable level.

OTHER RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The operations of the Company are speculative due to the high-risk nature of its business, which is the acquisition, financing, exploration and development of mining properties. Additional risks not currently known to the Company, or that the Company currently deems immaterial, may also impair the Company's operations. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018, there has been no change to Management's assessment of other risks and uncertainties. The two most significant risks are included below, and should they occur, could adversely impact the Company's business, financial condition and operating results.

For a detailed discussion of additional other risks and uncertainties not included above, refer to the Company's MD&A for the four months ended December 31, 2017 and the year ended August 31, 2017 dated April 24, 2018, which is incorporated by reference herein and available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on the Company's website at www.dsvmetals.com. For additional risks, refer to the Company's Filing Statement in Respect of a Change of Business dated August 3, 2017, available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

This MD&A also contains forward-looking information that involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of the risks faced by the Company as described in the documents incorporated by reference herein. Refer to the "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information".

Permits and Licenses

The operations of the Company require licenses and permits from various governmental authorities. The Company believes that it presently holds all necessary licenses and permits required in carrying out the activities which it is currently conducting under applicable laws and regulations and the Company believes it is presently complying in all material respects with the terms of such licenses and permits. However, such licenses and permits are subject to change in regulations and in various operating circumstances. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain all necessary licenses and permits required to carry out exploration, development and mining operations at its projects.

Limited Financial Resources

The existing financial resources of the Company are not sufficient to bring any of its properties into commercial production. The Company will need to obtain additional financing from external sources in order to fund the development of its properties. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain such financing on favourable terms, or at all. Failure to obtain financing could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development of the Company's properties.

Political Environment

The Company's mineral exploration activities are subject to various laws governing prospecting, development, production, taxes, labour standards and occupational health, mine safety, toxic substances, land use, water use, land claims of local and indigenous people and other matters. No assurance can be given that new rules and regulations will not be enacted or that existing rules and regulations will not be applied in a manner which could limit or curtail exploration, production or development. adverse impact on the operations and financial position of the Company. In addition, as governments continue to struggle with deficits and concerns over the effects of depressed economies, the mining and metals sector has been targeted to raise revenue. Governments are continually assessing the fiscal terms of the economic rent for a mining company to exploit resources in their countries. The occurrence of mining regime changes adds uncertainties that cannot be accurately predicted and any future adverse changes in government policies or legislation in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates that affect foreign ownership, mineral exploration, development or mining activities, may affect the Company's viability and profitability.

On December 1, 2018, a new government will take office in Mexico. Management is closely monitoring the potential impacts the change in government will have on the mining industry, foreign investment and general economy in Mexico as it relates to the Company.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGMENTS AND ESTIMATES

Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected. Critical accounting judgments and estimates include but are not limited to the Company's determination of: functional currency, the economic recoverability and probability of future economic benefits of exploration, evaluation and development costs, determination of useful lives, impairment charges, income taxes and share-based payments. The estimates of non-cash share-based payments expense involve considerable judgment and are, or could be, affected by significant factors that are out of the Company's control. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Details of these critical accounting judgments and estimates are included in the Company's MD&A for the four-months ended December 31, 2017 and the year ended August 31, 2017 available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com or on the Company's website at www.dsvmetals.com.
